

I find it amazing that you think there is nothing you can do to stop Sinclair.

It is up to the FCC to take action against Sinclair Broadcasting for forcing their stations to air what is clearly propaganda and in violation of election laws.

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. An anti-Kerry or anti-Bush propaganda piece is clearly not in the public interest.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
